

Ageless Award Nomination Form

Each year, JFRF recognizes outstanding individuals who are:

- 75 years or older
- Who have made and are making substantial contributions to our community and society
- Who serve as models of both the ideal that all communities are intergenerational and that our elders are a significant part of the community fabric

To fulfill the vision of recognizing these wonderful individuals, we invite you to submit the name(s) of someone you think is deserving of this recognition. Please provide the name and contact information of the nominee, and attach a paragraph about why this person should be considered for this honor.
